

LISTEN TO HIM

“This is my beloved Son; listen to him” Mark 9:7

AS WE GATHER

Within the pandemonium of the transfiguration, the voice speaks: "This is My beloved Son; listen to Him" (Mark 9:7). Moses is there and gone. Elijah is there and gone. The disciples are with Him on the mount and then head down into the valley. But the glory of the Lord will not depart. It will remain: lifted high upon the cross, revealed in the empty tomb, and placed upon the followers of Jesus. It is the Word that endures forever, the Word made flesh, and the Word who speaks through the voice of Scripture. The call remains: "Listen to Him."

- P Exalt the LORD our God, and worship at His holy mountain;
C for the LORD our God is holy!

Silence for reflection.

- P Almighty God, our Maker and Redeemer, we poor sinners confess unto You that we are by nature sinful and unclean and that we have sinned against You in thought, word, and deed. We flee for refuge to Your infinite mercy, seeking and imploring Your grace for the sake of our Lord Jesus Christ.
- C O most merciful God, who has given Your only-begotten Son to die for us, have mercy upon us and for His sake grant us remission of all our sins; and by Your Holy Spirit increase in us true knowledge of You and of Your will and true obedience to Your Word, to the end that by Your grace we may come to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.
- P Almighty God has had mercy upon you and has given His only Son to die for you and for His sake forgives you all your sins. In the stead and by the command of our Lord Jesus Christ, I, a called and ordained servant of the Word, forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. He who began this good work within you will bring it to completion on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.
- C Amen.

OLD TESTAMENT READING

Exodus 34:29–35

²⁹When Moses came down from Mount Sinai, with the two tablets of the testimony in his hand as he came down from the mountain, Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone because he had been talking with God. ³⁰Aaron and all the people of Israel saw Moses, and behold, the skin of his face shone, and they were afraid to come near him. ³¹But Moses called to them, and Aaron and all the leaders of the congregation returned to him, and Moses talked with them. ³²Afterward all the people of Israel came near, and he commanded them all that the LORD had spoken with him in Mount Sinai. ³³And when Moses had finished speaking with them, he put a veil over his face.

³⁴Whenever Moses went in before the LORD to speak with him, he would remove the veil, until he came out. And when he came out and told the people of Israel what he was commanded, ³⁵the people of Israel would see the face of Moses, that the skin of Moses' face was shining. And Moses would put the veil over his face again, until he went in to speak with him.

A This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

PSALM

Psalms 50:1–6

¹The Mighty One, God the LORD, speaks and summons the earth
from the rising of the sun to its setting.

²Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty,
God shines forth.

³Our God comes; he does not keep silence;
before him is a devouring fire,

around him a mighty tempest.

⁴He calls to the heavens above and to the earth, that he may judge his people:

⁵"Gather to me my faithful ones,
who made a covenant with me by sacrifice!"

⁶The heavens declare his righteousness,
for God himself is judge!

EPISTLE

2 Corinthians 3:12–18; 4:1–6

¹²Since we have such a hope, we are very bold, ¹³not like Moses, who would put a veil over his face so that the Israelites might not gaze at the outcome of what was being brought to an end. ¹⁴But their minds were hardened. For to this day, when they read the old covenant, that same veil remains unlifted, because only through Christ is it taken away. ¹⁵Yes, to this day whenever Moses is read a veil lies over their hearts. ¹⁶But when one turns to the Lord, the veil is removed. ¹⁷Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. ¹⁸And we all, with unveiled face, beholding the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another. For this comes from the Lord who is the Spirit.

¹Therefore, having this ministry by the mercy of God, we do not lose heart. ²But we have renounced disgraceful, underhanded ways. We refuse to practice cunning or to tamper with God's word, but by the open statement of the truth we would commend ourselves to everyone's conscience in the sight of God. ³And even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled only to those who are perishing. ⁴In their case the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelievers, to keep them from seeing the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God. ⁵For what we proclaim is not ourselves, but Jesus Christ as Lord, with ourselves as your servants for Jesus' sake. ⁶For God, who said, "Let light shine out of darkness," has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

A This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Mark 9:2–9

P The Holy Gospel according to St. Mark, the ninth chapter.

C Glorify to You, O Lord.

²After six days Jesus took with him Peter and James and John, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, ³and his clothes became radiant, intensely white, as no one on earth could bleach them. ⁴And there appeared to them Elijah with Moses, and they were talking with Jesus. ⁵And Peter said to Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good that we are here. Let us make three tents, one for you and one for Moses and one for Elijah." ⁶For he did not know what to say, for they were terrified. ⁷And a cloud overshadowed them, and a voice came out of the cloud, "This is my beloved Son; listen to him." ⁸And suddenly, looking around, they no longer saw anyone with them but Jesus only.

⁹And as they were coming down the mountain, he charged them to tell no one what they had seen, until the Son of Man had risen from the dead.

P This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Guest pastor

Welcome to Rev. Michael Heggen, serving as guest pastor today. When asked, here's what Pastor Heggen had to say about himself: I served my vicarage (internship) at Mount Zion Lutheran Church, Minneapolis, and then graduated from Concordia Seminary, St. Louis. I served as pastor of congregations in Minnesota (including So. St. Paul), Iowa, Colorado, and Illinois. My wife Kathy and I live in Apple Valley. We have a son and daughter-in-law living in the San Francisco Bay Area, and a daughter and son-in-law and two granddaughters living in Eagan.

Welcome baby Kroonblawd

Pastor Jim & Lynn Kroonblawd are pleased to announce the birth of their 3rd grandchild, Lucy Alma, on Friday, February 2 to Rev. Cory & Tori Kroonblawd. Lucy joins siblings, Isaiah & Joanna, and will be baptized in Sac City, Iowa on Sunday, February 11. "All of you who were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ." - Galatians 3:27

Lutheran Center for Religious Liberty

This coming Wednesday is a day especially dedicated to celebrate Love. This Wednesday is also Ash Wednesday, the start of Lent. How appropriate that we celebrate Love as we begin our preparation for Easter – the greatest Love ever given to us! The Lutheran Center for Religious Liberty is dedicated to advocate for our Church to worship as dictated by Scripture. Rev. Dr. Greg Seltz, former speaker for the Lutheran Hour, directs this LCMS effort. See www.LCRLFreedom.org for more information.

Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you.—Eph. 4:32

Thank you

Dear Friends in Christ, I would like to thank all of you for your heartfelt prayers and wonderful cards during my past illnesses and as I recover from back surgery. I want to share that I know positively it is because of our loving Lord's power and your faithful prayers that my recovery is going so well. God is good! He alone deserves all glory and will see us through horrible circumstances. Remember to rely on Him for all your needs. Remain steadfast knowing that He does hear and answer your prayers! All praise to Him.

Ash Wednesday – this Wednesday, February 14

5:15-6:15pm | Supper—please come for food and fellowship!

6:30pm | Worship with Holy Communion

How close is your relationship with Jesus? According to Paul, “All of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into His death,” and “if we have been united with Him in a death like His, we shall certainly be united with Him in a resurrection like His” (Romans 6:3, 5). Your Baptism has brought you so close to Jesus that you share death, life, and all things with Him. Therefore, when David said of Jesus in Psalm 41:1, “Blessed is the one who considers the poor,” he was also speaking of you. Your blessed Lord Jesus considers you—a poor, miserable sinner—and He will surely deliver you in the day of trouble so that you, too, will be “called blessed in the land” (Psalm 41:2).

With gratitude from Ryan Kroonblawd

Hello from St. Louis! I wanted to take a moment to thank you all for the financial support you have given me during my time at Concordia Seminary. For as long as I can remember, TLO has been a second home to me. Your continued support is only one of the many ways that TLO has represented Christ and his promises in my life. I thank you for continuing to give me this Christ-like support as I study over the next few years to become a pastor. Please keep me and everyone at the Seminary in your prayers, that we may faithfully serve the church as Christ has called us to do.
