AS WE GATHER

The theme of Lent is repentance. Today, we are given a prophet's story of warning against a people who refused His mercy. But it is not the only story. The Lord still invites us to find a refuge in the wings of His mercy and, to all who will receive Him and believe on His name, there is no limit to His grace. The Lord is determined to go to the cross for us and to bestow upon us all the treasures of His grace, but the path that leads to Christ is the way of repentance and faith. We pray that the Holy Spirit will work in our hearts so that we may not refuse the Lord's invitation and may rejoice in the wings of His mercy forevermore.

INVOCATION

P In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.
C Amen.

CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION

Psalm 74:1

P O God, why do You cast us off forever?
C Why does Your anger smoke against the sheep of Your pasture?

- P May the Lord direct us to the ruins of our righteousness
C that we may learn repentance.

Silence for meditation and reflection.

- P O Lord,
C we poor sinners cry to You and beg Your mercy. We confess that we have lived as if You did not matter and as if we mattered most of all. Our Lord's name we have not honored as we should; our worship and prayers have faltered. We have not loved God above all things, and we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We have not done the good Your Word desires and have done the evil Your Word forbids. May God be merciful to us, forgive us all our sins, and strengthen our faith for the sake of Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

- P Almighty God in His mercy has given His Son to die for you and for His sake forgives you all your sins. As a called and ordained servant of Christ, and by His authority, I therefore forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the T Son and of the Holy Spirit. To the impenitent and unbelieving I declare that so long as you continue in your impenitence, God will not forgive your sins and will visit your iniquity upon you until you turn from your sinful ways, come to repentance, and trust in the merits of Jesus Christ alone.
C Amen.

- P May the Lord, who has begun this good work in us, bring it to completion in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.
C Amen.

KYRIE

LSB 186

- C Lord, have mercy upon us.
Christ, have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.

SALUTATION

- P The Lord be with you.
C And also with you.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

- P Let us pray.
O God, You see that of ourselves we have no strength. By Your mighty power defend us from all adversities that may happen to the body and from all evil thoughts that may assault and hurt the soul; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.
C Amen.

*HYMN OF RESPONSE

The Day is Surely Drawing Near

LSB 508, vs. 4–5

4 Then woe to those who scorned the Lord
And sought but carnal pleasures,
Who here despised His precious Word
And loved their earthly treasures!
With shame and trembling they will stand
And at the judge's stern command
To Satan be delivered.

5 My Savior paid the debt I owe
And for my sin was smitten;
Within the Book of Life I know
My name has now been written.
I will not doubt, for I am free,
And Satan cannot threaten me;
There is no condemnation!

ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE DAY

P On this Second Sunday in Lent, we are reminded that the Lord is rich in mercy and willing to forgive our sins and save us by His grace, but we are not always ready to approach Him in the humility of faith and with a heart of repentance. From the prophet Jeremiah comes the story of how the Word of the Lord was met with rejection, anger, and rebellion. In Philippians, a sorrowful Paul recounts the story of those who once believed but now walk as enemies of the Lord. In the Gospel, we hear the lament of the Lord who wanted to gather His people under the arms of His mercy, but they would not.

OLD TESTAMENT READING

Jeremiah 26:8–15

⁸When Jeremiah had finished speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak to all the people, then the priests and the prophets and all the people laid hold of him, saying, "You shall die! ⁹Why have you prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, 'This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate, without inhabitant'?" And all the people gathered around Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

¹⁰When the officials of Judah heard these things, they came up from the king's house to the house of the LORD and took their seat in the entry of the New Gate of the house of the LORD. ¹¹Then the priests and the prophets said to the officials and to all the people, "This man deserves the sentence of death, because he has prophesied against this city, as you have heard with your own ears."

¹²Then Jeremiah spoke to all the officials and all the people, saying, "The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and this city all the words you have heard. ¹³Now therefore mend your ways and your deeds, and obey the voice of the LORD your God, and the LORD will relent of the disaster that he has pronounced against you. ¹⁴But as for me, behold, I am in your hands. Do with me as seems good and right to you. ¹⁵Only know for certain that if you put me to death, you will bring innocent blood upon yourselves and upon this city and its inhabitants, for in truth the LORD sent me to you to speak all these words in your ears."

A This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

PSALM

Psalms 4

¹Answer me when I call, O God of my righteousness!
You have given me relief when I was in distress.
Be gracious to me and hear my prayer!

²O men, how long shall my honor be turned into shame?
 How long will you love vain words and seek after lies?
³But know that the LORD has set apart the godly for himself;
 the LORD hears when I call to him.
⁴Be angry, and do not sin;
 ponder in your own hearts on your beds, and be silent.
⁵Offer right sacrifices,
 and put your trust in the LORD.
⁶There are many who say, "Who will show us some good?
 Lift up the light of your face upon us, O LORD!"
⁷You have put more joy in my heart
 than they have when their grain and wine abound.
⁸In peace I will both lie down and sleep;
 for you alone, O LORD, make me dwell in safety.

EPISTLE

Philippians 3:17—4:1

¹⁷Brothers, join in imitating me, and keep your eyes on those who walk according to the example you have in us. ¹⁸For many, of whom I have often told you and now tell you even with tears, walk as enemies of the cross of Christ. ¹⁹Their end is destruction, their god is their belly, and they glory in their shame, with minds set on earthly things. ²⁰But our citizenship is in heaven, and from it we await a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, ²¹who will transform our lowly body to be like his glorious body, by the power that enables him even to subject all things to himself.

¹Therefore, my brothers, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm thus in the Lord, my beloved.

A This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

C Glory to You, O Lord.

³¹At that very hour some Pharisees came and said to [Jesus], "Get away from here, for Herod wants to kill you." ³²And he said to them, "Go and tell that fox, 'Behold, I cast out demons and perform cures today and tomorrow, and the third day I finish my course. ³³Nevertheless, I must go on my way today and tomorrow and the day following, for it cannot be that a prophet should perish away from Jerusalem.' ³⁴O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to it! How often would

I have gathered your children together as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, and you would not!
³⁵Behold, your house is forsaken. And I tell you, you will not see me until you say, 'Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!'"

Seder Meal Invitation

Thursday, April 14 | 5:00pm | TLO Gym

TLO members are invited to a Seder meal, a combined Passover meal and worship service. Our Seder meal follows closely the traditions of Passover meals at the time of Jesus including roast lamb, bitter herbs and unleavened bread. The service during the meal describes the symbolism of the various foods and rituals. Each family is asked to bring a dish (rice, green beans, or haroses (chopped apple salad), recipes are provided).

To participate in the Seder meal, sign up in the narthex indicating how many are coming and which dish you will bring. A donation is requested to defray the cost of the lamb, the wine and grape juice. Deadline for signing up is April 10. If you have questions, please contact Jim or Connie Kohn.

TLO School Musical on stage this week!

Wednesday, March 16, 1:30 pm

Thursday, March 17, 6:30 pm

TLO Gym

Join Trinity Lone Oak Lutheran School 4th-8th grade students for the return of the spring musical! Trevor Barrington wants his family to see the “real America,” so they’re heading west in their Rolls Royce motor home. When their RV breaks down in rustic Cactus Pass, Arizona, the snooty rich family finds themselves stranded, much to the horror of his snobbish wife Miranda and her French maid Fifi. Trevor doesn’t mind though, for the town’s annual jamboree will give his son and daughters a chance to experience a “real American tradition.” The only problem is that the jamboree has been cancelled every year for the past 80 years! You’ll have a rip-roarin’ good time as you watch Lester, the deputy who’s too shy to speak, play charades to reveal the criminal secret identity of one of our beloved townsfolk. This musical is sure to be a ten-gallon hat full of spur-jangling fun! Join us for either (or both!) of these fun performances!

Family Ministry Workshop
Saturday, March 26, 2022 | CSP

In this workshop, designed for parents, grandparents, DCEs, pastors, family ministry professionals, educators, and volunteers, Rev. Greg and Susan Finke will present biblical and practical insights from their upcoming book, Joining Jesus as a Family: Raising Children to be Followers of Jesus. Parents will learn practical tips, drawn from the life and ministry of Jesus, for discipling their children, and how they can weave these principles into how they are already raising their children day-by-day. Ministry leaders will discover how to enhance their ministry by helping parents overcome their fears and embrace Jesus' simple discipling process. Register at CSP.org or with the church office.
