

My Hope is Built on Nothing Less

Isaiah 51: 1-6

Stones speckle the whole Scripture

The New Testament knows topography too

Rocks have _____

“Look to the rock from which you were hewn, and to the quarry from which you were dug” Isaiah 51:1

Rocks involve _____

“For the heavens vanish like smoke, the earth will wear out like a garment, and they who dwell in it will die in like manner” Isaiah 51:6

Rocks mean _____

“You were hewn, that I might bless as Abraham. You were dug that I might multiply like Sarah. The Lord makes her wilderness like Eden and her desert like the garden of God” Isaiah 51:1–3

Rocks imply _____

“Listen, my whole people, my entire nation. Lift up your eyes, my salvation goes out and my righteousness draws in. My arms are gathering” Isaiah 51:4–6

Rocks indicate _____

“The Lord comforts Zion; he comforts all her waste places . . . I will set my justice for a light . . . and my arms will judge” Isaiah 51:3–5

Rocks cry out _____

“My salvation will be forever, and my righteousness will never be dismayed” Isaiah 51:3-5.

The Rock of Ages _____

“My salvation will be forever, and my righteousness will never be dismayed” (v 6)

Christ Alone _____
